Sr. Louis, Oct. 29.-The Sporting News of this city, contains a rather startling article on how the League intends to fight the Brotherhood of Base Ball Players. The scheme is to consolidate the National league and American association into one organiza tion of ten or twelve clubs. Each club is to contribute a large sum toward a guarante fund, the money to be used in aiding League clubs found to be suffering from competi-tion with Brotherhood teams. Attempts will also be made to cripple the Brotherhoo organization by offering large sums for the services of its best players. The statement is made that Von Der Abe has been offered a place in the organization and is willing to sacrifice Sunday games if the league contempiated can be formed.

Confirmed by Von Der Ahe. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 26.-Von Der Abe was here Thursday, and said the St Louis dispatch about the Lague and Association combining against the Brotherhood was authentic. So far as agreed upon now the details were: Indianapolis, Washington and Louisville will not be taken into the new organization, and the Philadelphia club will buy out the Athletics. The players until ther will be distributed according to some qualization plan yet to be determin

WILL FLAUNT THE RED FLAG. Sam Morton Threatens to Become a Bas

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 26 -41f the National League adopts this blanked Spalding scheme I shall become an Anarchist in the base ball business and shall flaunt the red flag in the faces of these League mag nates until either they or myself shall have been driven out of the base ball business for Secretary Sam Morton, of the Western Ball association, was somewhat excited when he said the above yesterday. "The scheme is for the passage of an amend ment to the rules governing purchases of players by the League and American asse ciation from the minor associations. The Worst Trust of the Lot.

"It means a gigantic base ball-trust-traffic in human flesh, so to speak. There is no ough I have it from good authority that majority of the magnate directors in th League are in favor of its adoption. If it is adopted I want to say right now that I shall fight the men who pass it to the bitter end I shall do my best to secure the secession of all the Minnesota leagues. Tois Spalding pill is more than I can swallow."

A Tie for the Championship, New YORK, Oct. 26,-Another chilly day greeted the players in the sixth game of the championship base ball match, but the game was the best one played so far. Brooklyn scored its only run in the second inning and the Giants did not tie the game until the ninth, when Ward managed to get around the bases by clover work aided by his own safe hit followed by another one by Connor It took two more innings to settle the game, the Giants getting their second run in the eleventh. The score for the championship is now a tie

SETTLERS WITHOUT RIGHTS.

Surprise for the Inhabitants of Fort Pierre, S. D. - Much Excitement. PITREE S. D. Oct. 26 -Intense excite ment prevails at Fort Pierre, across the river from this place, caused by the receipt of private advices from the officials of the interior department stating that the people there have no recognizable right to the land whereon they are settled, and that the land where the town is situated belongs to the government, and will be opened for settle-ment in the same manner as the rest of the reservation land; provided, however, that the Northwestern Railway company does not accept the mile square on the conditions herstofore agreed to between the company and the government.

The Company Will Take the Lead. The advices also add that the company i certain to take the land, as it has recently signified its intention of so doing, and that the land it wants is exactly that on which the Fort Pierre settlers are located. The information clearly states that in either case the settlers will be compelled to vacate the reservation entirely and come across the river after the president issues his proclamation and before it takes effect, and the military authorities have been notified to pree pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able cure in all its stages, and that is catarrb. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength, by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Addres, F. J. CHENEY & Co, Toledo, O.
